Hey, what's going on? Why are the Christmas trees and the nativity scene still up? Did someone forget to put them away? The season of Christmas ended on January 12, Baptism of the Lord - - - or did it?

There is a tradition in the Church that Christmas ends on February 2nd, forty days after the birth of Jesus and that is when Christmas decorations are put away. February 2nd is called the Presentation of the Lord, when scripture tells us that Mary and Joseph took the baby Jesus to the Temple to present him as was required by Jewish law. Traditionally, many families around the world use this day as the day to "pick up Baby Jesus." The family bring the baby Jesus from their home nativity scene to church and present him to the priest. It is a day of celebration, of singing and of course, of eating.

Yes, it is a time for celebrating and feasting, but it also is a time for more prayer with Baby Jesus and the Holy Family. We have 40 days on which to contemplate the image of the Holy Family in our midst. It is a time to enter into prayer with Jesus, Mary and Joseph in a more profound way. The rush of the pre-Christmas season is over. Now we can sit in the quiet of our homes and look upon the images, read scripture, and pray before the Holy Family who prays for us and for our families. May this time be a time for us to focus more upon the great gift God has given us, His son, Jesus Christ, the light of the world. Happy Christmas.
