Ready To Get Involved?

ALTAR LINEN MINISTRY: Our parish is indebted to a small group of ministers who give of their time behind the scenes. We say it is behind the scenes, but it is a ministry which is front and center when it comes to the Mass.

The Altar Linen Ministry volunteers are responsible for caring for the special linens that are used at the Mass (purificators, finger towels, corporals). If it weren't for their diligent care, we would not be able to celebrate the Mass in the dignified manner in which it is celebrated. It isn't just about washing and ironing the items; it is a ministry which demonstrates the great love and reverence that the minister has for the Holy Eucharist because these linens when used at Mass may contain the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. The ministers treat each item with reverence and care.

A short video demonstrating how the items are to be laundered and ironed is part of the training. The minister 'shadows' another minister, observing how items are laundered and a few weeks later they are placed on a rotating schedule. On a Saturday or a Sunday after Mass, the minister gathers the items at church and takes them home. Using their own washer and dryer, they wash them with regular laundry soap, they dry them and iron them. Once the items are laundered, they are returned to the church; that way we always have freshly laundered linens to use for Mass.

Depending on how many Masses are offered that week, sometimes there may be more linens to wash. Currently, we have one minister per week assigned to wash the linens, but in order to make it easier, we would like to have at least 2 ministers per week taking care of the linens, that way it doesn't become a lot of washing for one person.

If one of your new year's resolutions is to get involved, but start out small, this is the perfect ministry for you. Please contact Mary López, Liturgy Coordinator for more information or to sign up to serve. The New Year is waiting for you. Are you ready? Let's go! Women and Men are welcome!
