LENTEN PARISH MISSION—OUR LADY OF LOURDES CATHOLIC CHURCH

March 10, 11 & 12, 2025—10:00 AM Mornings and 6:00 PM Evenings

Presented by Tom & Jean Marie Edwards

Monday, March 10,—"A New Heart—Avenue to Hope" by Tom Edwards----

God calls us to a radical transformation--a progression from "who we are now" to "what He created us to be". The spiritual surgery he desires to perform is challenging indeed but nothing can be more rewarding than being a man or woman after "God's own heart". We will learn about dealing with the "seven deadly pallbearers of character".

Tuesday, March 11,—"Called to Hope—Sent to Share" by Jean Marie Edwards-

Hebrews 10:23 "Let us hold unwaveringly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful." Hope keeps us anchored to our Lord in all the rough seas drawing close to Him who alone can answer prayer with true Peace and Joy. Hope calls us to love and bring others who are without Hope to the one source of all goodness, Jesus.

Wednesday, March 12,----"Radical Forgiveness and Our Blessed Hope" by Tom

Edwards (followed by prayer for healing)----- God has given us principles for life which open the door to a consistent experience of joy, peace, and the promised fullness of life. There is a great power resident in the "principle of forgiveness". Violation of the principle can have catastrophic effects. Learn about the great liberation, the healing freedom that accompanies the "power of forgiveness".

Tom Edwards and his wife Jean Marie make their home in St. Augustine, FL. They are blessed with an abundance of family which includes 20 grandchildren and two great grandsons. They are life long Catholics and have been engaged in full time lay Catholic ministry and mission for 51 years. They travel the world presenting parish missions, retreats, rallies, workshops, and conferences throughout North, South and Central America, Asia, Europe and Africa. Their presentations based on Holy Scripture, Church teaching and personal experiences bring the faith to bear in one's application to everyday life.

Our Lenten Journey With Jesus Prayer, Giving, Devotion

The Knights of Columbus, Our Lady of Lourdes Parish and Mission, Council 11809 is inviting all parishioners on "Our Lenten Journey With Jesus". This six-week devotional program focuses on the gifts Jesus gives us through his life, death and resurrection. It calls us to prayer, giving and devotion. Each week during Lent a specially prepared devotional will be printed in the bulletin for your use during the following week. You are asked to set aside time during the week to reflect and pray using the devotional. Suggested readings from the Family Fully Alive booklet accompany the weekly devotions. Pick up a copy of the booklet from the kiosk in the church narthex or information table at the Mission. At the three Ash Wednesday services (March 5) each family will be provided a donation box for your Lenten offering. ALL proceeds from donations will go to the Parish for the expansion of the Adoration Chapel. There could be no better way to express our gratitude for Jesus' sacrifice than to make access to Him through Eucharistic Adoration more accessible. You may want to include making your sacrificial contribution to the box each week when you do your devotional. Return your donation box to the church when you attend Good Friday Service, Easter Sunday or to the church office.

The Divine Mercy Story and History in our Parrish – a Seven Part Series

Just what is this Devotion? Over the next several weeks we will explain the Divine Mercy Devotion, how it started and its benefits. There are many versions, some available online, in addition to people participating in their local parishes. At Our Lady of Lourdes devotion follows the 8:30 Thursday morning Mass and lasts about 30-35 minutes. Participants follow certain prayers, reading excerpts from St. Maria Faustina's Diary and the Novena of the day. Devotion is concluded with the recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet using a standard rosary. A membership roster is maintained, and members electronically receive "Day x Day with St. Faustina" which is a brief excerpt, reflection and prayer based on The Diary. The group also maintains an electronic "Gmail" account to submit prayer requests which are sent to all the members asking prayers for their special needs.

The devotion began here in 1993 formed by a small group of parishioners in their home. After several years the group grew and moved the devotion to space in Madonna Hall. Fr. Minogue was pastor at that time and approved the devotion in the church after the noon Mass on Thursdays including Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with Benediction. Fr. David continued the practice until COVID-19 when the churches were closed. With the Parish reorganization Fr. John continued the Divine Mercy Devotion on Thursdays to follow the 8:30 AM daily Mass with Adoration. The Devotion continues today with Fr. Shay's approval with the extension of Adoration hours. All are invited to attend devotion and participate in a social get together in Madonna Hall for coffee and conversation at the close of the Devotion.
