The Divine Mercy Story and History in our Parrish

When did visions begin? The evening of February 22, 1931, Sister Faustina saw for the first time the Lord Jesus. She wrote in her diary: I saw the Lord Jesus dressed in a white robe with red and pale rays streaming forth from the area of His Heart. He tells her to "Paint an image", according to the pattern you see, bearing the signature, "Jesus, I trust in You". He said: I desire that this image be venerated, first in your chapel, and then throughout the world. I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish. I also promise victory over its enemies already here on earth, especially at the hour of death, I myself will defend it as My own glory. (Diary 47-48).

Sister did not know how to paint. Her confessor explained that the meaning refers to your soul and you should "Certainly, paint God's image in your soul". Sister left the confessional and heard these words: "My image already is in your soul, I desire that there be a Feast of Mercy, I want this image, which you will paint with a brush, to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter; that Sunday is to be the Feast of Mercy. I desire that priests proclaim this great mercy of Mine towards souls of sinners. Let the sinner not be afraid to approach Me. The flames of mercy are burning Me-clamoring to be spent; I want to pour them out upon these souls." Jesus complained to me in these words. Distrust on the part of souls is tearing at My insides. The distrust of a chosen soul causes Me even greater pain; despite My inexhaustible love for them, they do not trust Me. Even My death is not enough for them. Woe to the soul that abuses these gifts. (Diary 49-50)

Sr. Faustina asked the nuns at her convent for help because she had no knowledge of painting but received no help. She attempted to sketch the image with charcoal but had little success. In her diary, she wrote that Jesus told her that she would receive "visible help" with the task. In November 1932, Faustina left Plock and returned to Warsaw, and in May 1933, she was sent to the convent in Vilnius to work as a housekeeper, gardener, cook and similar duties.

*Our Lenten Journey With Jesus
Prayer, Giving, Devotion*

JESUS gives us HOPE

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you. Peter 1:3-4

Pope Francis has declared 2025 as a Holy Year of Jubilee and the theme is "Pilgrims of Hope". He wrote, "For everyone, may the Jubilee be a moment of genuine, personal encounter with the Lord Jesus, the 'door' ... of our salvation, whom the Church is charged to proclaim always, everywhere and to all as 'our hope...everyone knows what it is to hope. In the heart of each person, hope dwells as the desire and expectation of good things to come, despite our not knowing what the future may bring.... For all of us, may the Jubilee be an opportunity to be renewed in hope. God's word helps us find reasons for that hope." Reflect on how easy it is to let storms of life drown out the message of hope that we need in our hearts. Reach beyond the noise and draw upon the words of Jesus who never lost hope.

Dear Jesus, restore in me a renewed and growing hope that flows from knowing how much I am loved. Help me find ways to share that hope with others, especially those most in need of Your encouragement.
