Prayer, Giving, Devotion*

JESUS gives us COURAGE

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid. John 14:27

We all know courage when we see it! We see it in the bravery of our military defending our freedom, the selfless acts of first responders who rush toward danger rather than away and the lives of the Saints who stood defiant against demands that they denounce their faith. As Franklin D. Roosevelt said, "Courage is not the absence of fear, but rather the assessment that something else is more important than fear." Jesus tells us that the virtue of courage is a gift from Him and through courage we get to know God better. For most of us great acts of courage occur infrequently if at all. But, make no mistake that all of us show courage standing up for the most vulnerable among us...the disabled, poor, heartbroken and unborn.

Dear Jesus, help me rise above my fears and hold firm to what is more important...the peace that comes through walking more closely with You. Amen.

Please read from The Family Fully Alive booklet (get one in the narthex kiosk or information table at the Mission), pages 33-35.

The Work Begins

In Vilnius, Faustina met Father Michael Sopocko, the newly appointed confessor to the nuns. Fr. Sopocko, a professor of theology at the University of Vilnius introduced Sr. Faustina to Eugene Kazimierowski, a professor of art. One day I saw him in our chapel between the altar and the confessional, suddenly I heard a voice in my soul say: This is the visible help for you on earth. He will help you carry out my will on earth. (Diary I 53) Fr. Sopocko supported Faustina's efforts and arranged for the first painting of the image by the artist Eugene Kazimierowski, who lived in the same building as Sopocko. January 2, 1934 Sister Faustina's Mother Superior allows her to visit the artist several times a month. Kazimierowski had painted religious images before, but this task was difficult for him. Fr. Sopocko posed as Jesus for the image, wearing an alb, as both he and Faustina regularly visited the painter's workshop. June 1934, the painting of the image of Divine Mercy is completed. The final painting satisfied neither Sopocko nor Faustina. Sister Faustina cried because the image of the Lord Jesus is not as beautiful as she had seen Him. She later wrote that Christ told her it is not important the picture be beautiful. The true beauty, Christ said: "would be the blessing He would bestow to the people by the means of the painting." (This is the only rendition Faustina saw, after her death, a number of other artists painted their own versions of the image.)
