*Our Lenten Journey With Jesus
Prayer, Giving, Devotion*

JESUS gives us FORGIVENESS

Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful. Do not judge, and you will not be judged; and do not condemn, and you will not be condemned; pardon, and you will be pardoned. Give, and it will be given to you. They will] pour into your lap a good measure—pressed down, shaken together, and running over. For by your standard of measure it will be measured to you in return. Luke 6:36-38

We've all heard the saying attributed to Alexander Pope that, "to err is human, to forgive, divine". Jesus is the supreme example of the extent to which forgiveness must go in healing and redeeming. In fact, through his life, death and resurrection, he gave us the gift of the power of true human and true divine forgiveness. It's also been said that it is often easier to forgive our enemies than it is our family and friends. Why is that? Maybe it's because our feelings are so much deeper when we are hurt or angered by the people we are closest to. Our natural human response is to strike back, to wish bad things on them, to feel the sweetness of revenge. Our human response is like a cancer that eats away and tears us down. That is not what Jesus' gift of forgiveness calls us to do. From the very cross where he gave his life for our redemption he said, Father forgive them..." Even in the depth of his pain and agony He was our example of forgiveness.

Dear Jesus fill my heart with Your gift of forgiveness especially toward my family and friends from whom I have been separated by hurt or anger. Amen.

Please read from The Family Fully Alive booklet (get one in the narthex kiosk or information table at the Mission), pages 25-27.

Public Presentation

After completion in 1934, the painting hung in the Bernardine Sisters' convent near the church of St. Michael the Archangel, where Fr. Sopocko was the Rector. In her diary, Sister Faustina notes Jesus told her to inform her confessor the proper place for the painting was in a church, not in the hallway of a convent. . The first public exposition of the Kazimierowski image was on April 26-28, 1935, at the church of the Gate of Dawn in Vilnius. Jesus reminded Sr. Faustina the words "Jesus , I trust in You" were to be the signature. Fr. Sopocko added the signature In 1943, five years after Sr. Faustina's death, Adolf Hyla painted his version of the Divine Mercy, following the description in Sr. Faustina's Diary, as an offering for surviving WWII. Hyla's version, called the Divine Mercy of Krakow, is the most often seen and recognized version today. On April 4, 1937, the Sunday after Easter, the current Feast of Divine Mercy, and at the Lord Jesus' request the picture was placed on display beside the main altar in St Michael's Church, Vilnius. The Archbishop of Krakow Karol Wojtyla (later St. Pope John Paul) began preparations for the beatification process. The artist Hyla deeded the copyright to the Merciful Jesus convent in Krakow He wanted the money from the image's publication be donated to Faustina's beatification process, He died in Krakow before he could initiate the process. He was 68 years old.
