*Our Lenten Journey With Jesus
Prayer, Giving, Devotion*

JESUS gives us HIS BODY

Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. John 6:53-56

Thanksgiving! That is the meaning of the Greek word eucharistia from which we get the word Eucharist. When we gather for Mass we are saying "thank you" to Jesus for His sacrificial offering that redeems us and all of humanity from our sin. He literally gave us his body and blood on the cross, and through the consecration of bread and wine by the Priest, He literally gives us his body and blood again today.

Dear Jesus, as we come to the end of our Lenten journey with You I pray that through the Blessed Sacrament my unity with You is renewed. Help me rejoice in the reality that through You, my Lord and Savior, I have eternal life. I give thanks that as part of God's family I am showered through grace with Your boundless love. Amen.

Please plan to attend Sacred Triduum services this Holy Week. Times for Holy Thursday Mass of the Last Supper, Good Friday Service and Holy Saturday are in the bulletin. Please return your Lenten offering box when you attend Good Friday, Easter Sunday or to the Church office. A Knight will be available to collect it from you.

The Respect Life Ministry meets the first Tuesday of every month.

Jesus said: "My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the Fount of My Mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day, all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come forth from the very depths of My most tender mercy. Every soul in its relation to Me will contemplate My love and mercy throughout eternity. The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy." (Diary 300, 570, 699, 965, 998)
