OUR LADY OF LOURDES
PARISH & MISSION

A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

A LETTER TO OUR PARISH FAMILY

Dear Parishioners,

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks to see a coin. He holds it up and says, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They answer, "Caesar's." And Jesus replies, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God" (Matthew 22:20-21).

The coin bore Caesar's image, but God's image is stamped on us. We belong to Him. Everything we have is His gift, entrusted to our care for a time. That is the heart of stewardship: receiving what God gives, caring for it, and one day handing it on.

Our parish and mission are part of that trust. Those who came before us built this church and passed it on to us. Now it is our turn to care for it and prepare it for those who will come after.

I need to speak with you about our church's air conditioning. The current unit is original to the building. It has served us for decades, but it is worn out, and replacing it is now necessary. A new system, along with the electrical and ductwork updates required by code, will cost $115,000.

What weighs on my heart is not just the cost, but the thought of someone staying home from Mass in July because the church is too hot. For many, that heat is a matter of health. I want this church to remain a safe and comfortable place for all who come to worship. For this reason, we have begun the Keep Lourdes Cool: Air Conditioning Fund.

I know how faithfully so many of you already support Our Lady of Lourdes. I ask each household to pray about making a sacrificial gift to this fund, according to your means, so we can keep our parish cool, welcoming, and safe for everyone.

In today's second reading, St. Paul thanks God for the Thessalonians, remembering their "work of faith and labor of love and endurance in hope of our Lord Jesus Christ" (1 Thessalonians 1:2-3). I give thanks for you in the same way. Caring for our church, including keeping it cool, is one way we love those who gather here now and those who will gather here long after we are gone.

If you are able to help, there are three ways to give:

- Through our website, ololscw.org (select Keep Lourdes Cool: Air Conditioning Fund)
- By directing a gift from your IRA's Required Minimum Distribution through a Qualified Charitable Distribution. The parish office can assist you.
- By check, placed in the collection or brought to the parish office. Please write "Keep Lourdes Cool: Air Conditioning Fund" on the memo line.

The psalm says, "Give to the LORD the glory due his name," and "Bring gifts and enter his courts" (Psalm 96:8). We do not buy our way into His courts. He has already invited us. We simply bring what we can, and we come in.

Your generosity has sustained this parish for many years. I am grateful for you, and I ask you to keep me in your prayers as we care for our parish home together.

May God bless you all.

In Christ,

Fr. Sheunesu

Jesus is confronted by the Pharisees, who hope to trap Him with a question about paying taxes to Caesar. He asks them to show Him a coin and identify whose image it bears. When they answer Caesar, Jesus tells them to give Caesar what belongs to Caesar and God what belongs to God. His answer reaches beyond taxes and earthly obligations.

The coin bears Caesar's image, but we bear something far greater. Each of us is created in the image and likeness of God. Our lives, gifts, and opportunities come from Him. Yet it is easy to forget this truth when everyday responsibilities occupy our attention. We give our time to work, family, and countless obligations. How much of ourselves do we willingly give to God?

Jesus reminds us that our responsibilities in this world matter, but they cannot replace our relationship with God. He asks for more than occasional prayers or an hour at Mass. He desires hearts open to His grace. We honor Him through forgiveness, generosity, patience, and service. Our faith should shape not only what we believe, but how we treat others each day.

Bearing God's image also carries responsibility. Every person we encounter possesses the same dignity, regardless of age, circumstances, or differences. Recognizing that dignity should influence our words, judgments, and actions. We cannot claim to love God while refusing to see His image in our neighbor. Following Christ means allowing His love to change how we live and how we respond to others.

This Sunday, consider what your daily choices reveal about your relationship with God. Are you giving Him only what remains after everything else, or are you making room for Him throughout your life? The world makes many demands upon us, but our hearts ultimately belong to God. Whose image are you reflecting in the way you live?

ST. LUKE THE EVANGELIST: THE GOSPEL OF MERCY AND THE HEART OF CHRIST

Saint Luke wrote two books of the New Testament, the Gospel according to Luke and the Acts of the Apostles. Both address a man named Theophilus. Acts continues the story where the Gospel ends, and together the two books record the life of Christ and the first decades of the Church. He wrote polished Greek for readers beyond Israel.

Scripture says little about Luke himself. Saint Paul calls him a coworker and "the beloved physician" in his letters to the Colossians and to Philemon. In Second Timothy, Paul writes from prison, "Only Luke is with me." Several passages in Acts shift to "we," which suggests the author traveled with Paul. Tradition names him the author.

Later Tradition adds details. Early writers place Luke in Antioch and describe him as a Gentile. The Church honors him as patron of physicians. Luke was not an eyewitness of Christ's ministry. He tells us he investigated everything carefully and relied on those who saw Christ. The Church receives both books as inspired Scripture.

Luke presents Jesus as the face of God's mercy. Only Luke records the parables of the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son.

In the first, a Samaritan stops for a wounded stranger. He treats the wounds, pays for lodging, and promises to return. Jesus then asks who proved to be a neighbor. The answer is the one who showed mercy. Jesus ends with a command to every listener: go and do likewise.

In the second, a father sees his younger son far off and runs to him. He embraces the young man before any apology ends. Repentance and forgiveness meet on the road home. The father goes out to plead with the elder brother.

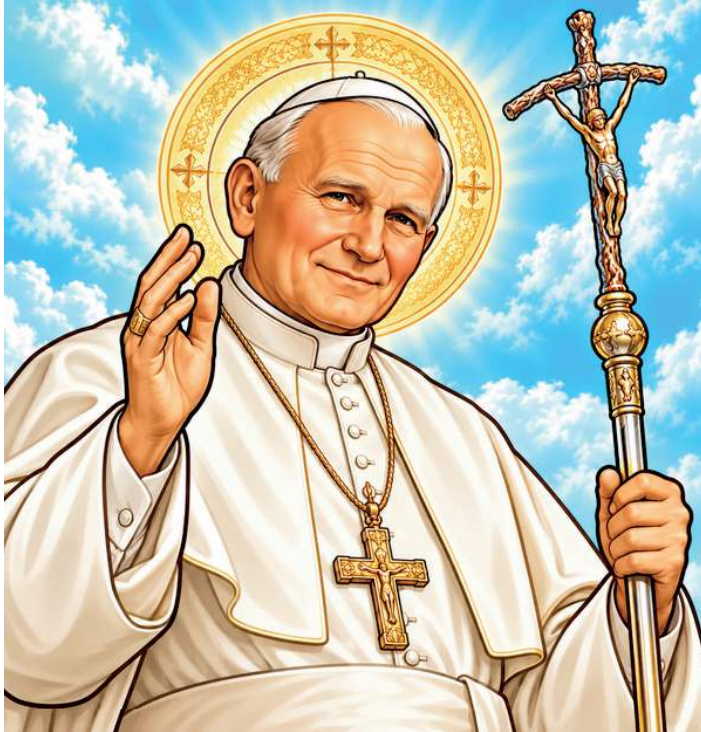

Luke also gives us Mary. Only his Gospel tells of the Annunciation, when Gabriel greets her as full of grace. At the Visitation, Elizabeth calls her blessed. In the Magnificat, Mary praises God for lifting the lowly and filling the hungry. The Church prays her song at Evening Prayer every day.

Prayer runs through this Gospel. Jesus prays before His baptism, before choosing the Twelve, and on the mountain of the Transfiguration. Luke also names the poor, women, tax collectors, and Gentiles among those Jesus welcomes. Simeon calls the child a light for the nations.

These pages speak to your week. Ask whom you passed by. Pray each morning and evening. Go to Confession when you carry a grudge or a sin. Forgive one person by name, even when the person has not asked. Luke asks for action.

Mercy is concrete. Visit a homebound parishioner. Bring food to the parish pantry. Call someone who is lonely. Pray the Magnificat with Mary. Ask Saint Luke to intercede for you, so your faith produces charity and your charity leads others to Christ.

12 • CATHOLIC HERITAGE

ST. JOHN PAUL II: A LIFE OF COURAGE, FAITH, AND MERCY

BY JOSEPH LANGENBACH

Karol Wojtyła was born in Wadowice, a small town near Kraków, on May 18, 1920. His father, an army veteran, taught him to pray by example. His mother, Emilia, died in 1929, when Karol was eight. His older brother Edmund, a physician, died in 1932. Then his father died in 1941, and at twenty Karol had lost his entire family.

When Nazi forces occupied Poland in 1939, Karol worked in a local quarry and a chemical plant. He later joined an underground seminary in Kraków, and Cardinal Adam Sapieha ordained him a priest on November 1, 1946. These sorrows deepened his trust in God and his compassion for everyone who suffers.

Karol later served as Bishop, Archbishop of Kraków, and Cardinal, and he took part in the Second Vatican Council. On October 16, 1978, the cardinals elected him pope, and he took the name John Paul II. He was the first non-Italian pope in 455 years. He led the Church for nearly twenty-seven years. The Church honors him with an optional memorial on October 22.

In his first homily as pope, John Paul II urged the world, "Be not afraid." He knew fear and loss firsthand. He asked people to open the doors to Christ, who answers fear with trust.

He taught every person has dignity because God creates each one in His image. He defended religious freedom, the unborn, the elderly, and the poor. In Evangelium Vitae he urged Catholics to protect life at every stage. He also promulgated the Catechism of the Catholic Church in 1992.

His 1979 visit to Poland encouraged millions under communist rule. Many leaders and movements helped end communism in Eastern Europe, and his support for human rights mattered. He began World Youth Day in 1985 to inspire young disciples.

Mary guided his faith. His motto, Totus Tuus, means "Totally Yours." Saint Louis de Montfort inspired the words, and John Paul entrusted his papacy to Mary to lead him to her Son.

In 2000 he canonized Saint Faustina Kowalska and named the Sunday after Easter Divine Mercy Sunday. Her message of trust in God's mercy shaped his preaching and steadied Catholics through cultural change.

On May 13, 1981, a gunman shot him in Saint Peter's Square. Surgeons saved his life. On December 27, 1983, he visited Mehmet Ali Ağca in prison and forgave him. Parkinson's disease later slowed his body, yet he kept praying and teaching in public. He died on April 2, 2005, and Pope Francis canonized him on April 27, 2014.

Pray each day for someone who hurt you. Forgive one person by name this week. Trust God's mercy when illness, grief, or uncertainty tests your strength. Ask where fear holds you back from Christ, and answer with "Be not afraid." Each act is small, and each follows Christ.

29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY

1. Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to thee:
Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and mighty,
God in three Persons, blessed Trinity.

2. Holy, Holy, Holy! All the saints adore thee,
Casting down their golden crowns
Around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee,
Which wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.

3. Holy, Holy, Holy!
Though the darkness hide thee,
Though the eye made blind by sin
Thy glory may not see,
Only thou art holy; there is none beside thee,
Perfect in pow'r, in love, and purity.

Text: 11 12 12 10; Reginald Heber, 1783–1826, alt. Music: John B. Dykes, 1823–1876.

GLORIA

Mass of Renewal

FIRST READING

Isaiah 45:1,4-6

Thus says the LORD to his anointed, Cyrus, whose right hand I grasp, subduing nations before him, and making kings run in his service, opening doors before him and leaving the gates unbarred: For the sake of Jacob, my servant, of Israel, my chosen one, I have called you by your name, giving you a title, though you knew me not. I am the LORD and there is no other, there is no God besides me. It is I who arm you, though you know me not, so that toward the rising and the setting of the sun people may know that there is none besides me. I am the LORD, there is no other.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

SECOND READING

1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: grace to you and peace. We give thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in our prayers, unceasingly calling to mind your work of faith and labor of love and endurance in hope of our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father, knowing, brothers and sisters loved by God, how you were chosen. For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with much conviction.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Cf. Philippians 2:15d, 16a

Shine like lights in the world as you hold on to the word of life.

14 • ORDER OF WORSHIP

GOSPEL

Matthew 22:15-21

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. And you are not concerned with anyone's opinion, for you do not regard a person's status. Tell us, then, what is your opinion: Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax." Then they handed him the Roman coin. He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

OFFERTORY HYMN

FRAGRANCE PRAYER

Dear Jesus, help me to spread Your fragrance,
Everywhere that I go.
Dear Jesus, flood my soul,
With Your spirit and Your love.

1. Penetrate and possess my being,
So utterly that all my life,
May only be a radiance of You.

2. Shine through me and be so in me,
That every soul I come in contact with,
May feel Your presence in my soul.

3. Let them look up and see no longer me,
But only You, my Jesus.
Stay with me and then I shall begin to shine,
As You shine so to shine as a Light to all.

Eat this bread, drink this cup,
come to him and never be hungry.
Eat this bread, drink this cup,
trust in him and you will not thirst.

1. Christ is the bread of life,
the true bread sent from the Father.
2. Our ancestors ate manna in the desert, but this is the bread come down from heaven.

COMMUNION HYMN

1. O Lord, I am not worthy
That thou should'st come to me,
But speak the words of comfort,
My spirit healed shall be.
2. "O come, all you who labor
In sorrow and in pain.
Come, eat this Bread from heaven;
Thy peace and strength regain."

RECESSIONAL HYMN

1. Longing for light, we wait in darkness.
Longing for truth, we turn to you.
Make us your own, your holy people,
light for the world to see.

Christ, be our light! Shine in our hearts.
Shine through the darkness.
Christ, be our light!
Shine in your church gathered today.

2. Longing for peace, our world is troubled.
Longing for hope, many despair.
Your word alone has pow'r to save us.
Make us your living voice.

EAT THIS BREAD

3. Eat his flesh and drink his blood,
And Christ will raise you up on the last day.
4. Anyone who eats this bread will live forever.

O LORD, I AM NOT WORTHY

3. O Jesus, we adore thee,
Our Victim and our Priest,
Whose precious Blood and Body
Become our sacred Feast.
4. O Sacrament most holy,
O Sacrament divine!
All praise and all thanksgiving
Be every moment thine.

CHRIST BE OUR LIGHT

3. Longing for food, many are hungry.
Longing for water, many still thirst.
Make us your bread, broken for others,
shared until all are fed.
4. Longing for shelter, many are homeless.
Longing for warmth, many are cold.
Make us your building, sheltering others,
walls made of living stone.
